

With all of the complications that surround our world from day to day, K-love radio has devoted their efforts toward providing our families and communities with the positive influence and encouragement that it needs. Their commitment is in the public interest, and their replacement would effect an entire wave of positive result. Please keep them alive. Thanks.